

ICONIC SOUTH AFRICAN WOMAN

Dr. Naledi Pandor

By: Ismah Parker

- Born: 7 December 1953, Durban (72 years)
- Primary and High school in Botswana
- Teacher, various degrees
- Education & Anti-apartheid struggle

Background

- South African politician
- Minister of International Relations and Cooperation
- Minister of Science and Technology
- Minister of Higher Education and Training
- Fairness and Justice
- International Court Case, 1st of its kind

Achievements

- She grew up under-privileged yet became a minister
- She was a teacher
- She fights for equality even though it was hard!

“It’s our duty to seek (that) freedom for all humanity”

Inspiration

In the USA:

