

Kgothatso Montjane

By:Ron

Her life and

- History June 1986
in Seshego
- Below-the-knee
amputation
- Special Needs school
- Wheelchair tennis

ACHIEVEMENTS & LEGACY

- Competitions around the world
- Disabled Sportswoman of the Year
- Summer Paralympics
- First black woman to qualify at Wimbledon.
- 2023 won US and French Open
- 2024 won Wimbledon

Why She inspires me.

Her quote.

"I don't do it for myself. I do it for every African woman and every African child who wants to take (up) the sport. I just want them to believe that they can do it, they deserve to be there."

